Story Summary: Coraline moves into a new house and goes through this door that takes her to another world. She sees another person, who says she's her other mother. Coraline gets scared and runs back out of the door to her world. When she gets there, her mom and dad are missing for a day. Then she finds out she must face the other mother in a game to get her parents back. Will she ever get her parents back?

Review: I liked this book because I like scary and adventure books. It gave me the shivers down my back. If you like scary and adventurous books, you should read this book.
